October Half Term Camp

Permission to use images

Child's full name: .....

Child's school: .....

Please select below if you are happy for your child(ren)'s image to be used in:

- Printed publications, to be used in advertisements for camps
- Social media platforms (posts, stories, reels) - to see regular updates and look back on memories
- Future camp website
- None of the above

What if I don't give permission?

Your child(ren) may be asked to step aside during photographs or videos that are going to be used for publications, social media, or any future website. We will make sure all staff are aware of children without permission to ensure they are not in photographs or videos.

Please be aware we may continue to use your child(ren)'s image where they are part of a larger group or in the background. We will of course make sure the child's identity is protected and that they cannot be seen.

Can I change my mind?

Yes! If you have any questions or you would like to change your mind, please talk to a member of staff.

Please note: It may not be possible to change previously printed publications, such as adverts or publications already in existence.
