

Learning Journey

JOURNEY TO JO'BURG BY BEVERLEY NAIDOO

	Learning Objectives	Not Yet	Some	Good	Exceeded
1	To understand the meaning of 'apartheid' and learn what life was like under this rule.
2	To make predictions about characters, their motivations and their actions from details that have been stated or implied.
3	To make inferences about the text.
4	To explore and plan a familiar story from the viewpoint of a different character.
5	To write and tell a familiar story, written from a different viewpoint.
6	To summarise the main ideas from a text.
7	To identify and write direct and reported speech.
8	To write a retelling in the first person, using reported speech.
9	To give the meaning of words in context.
10	To show how the mood of the main character has developed as a result of the narrative.				